SENIORS

S - is for you seniors,
The best since many a year -

E - is for experiences,
You'll always treasure dear -

N - is for the nice times,
That one and all have shared -

I - is for the interest,
You showed us that you cared -

O - is for opportunity,
To live and work and play -

R - is for the right we have,
To enjoy each school day -

S - is for this dear ole school,
Here you've made friends galore

They'll be your key to happiness
Both now and forever more.

"Oh, Swami Alli-Alli-Balli, we humble Wilsonites do beg you prognosticate the fate of our senior class".

"So asked, so shall it be done, my children".

"Kabri-dabri-dah-mm-m, the mist rising in my crystal ball - the future flowing through it . . . Miss Shirley Seagrove, world acclaimed painter, is finishing her greatest masterpiece, "The Great Stone Face", Camper Wilson is the model. Ann Urquhart, glamour girl of the roaring 50's is celebrating her third marriage . . . the lucky man? - J. Hartman Marsteller, monumental tycoon and multimillionaire . . . the other two husbands? - Jimmy Fleming and Jack Fleshman, famous Metropolitan Opera tenors . . . D. "Weepy" Friend has just announced his candidacy on the 19th party ticket. George Gallup predicts: "Friend will poll .0001½ of votes cast" . . . Friend is ably assisted in his barnstorming cross-country tour by the SSS Boys - Smoot, Sink and Scholtz. In Hollywood, glamour capital of the world, Caroline Sipe, "Tuffy" Brown, Peggy Parker Pat Clark and Leon Angle have completed the raucous comedy - "Four Old Maids and a Bachelor" . . . also operating from California is Jimmy Matthews, 97th ex. vice pres., in charge of Janitorial Operations at the vast Horace Neighbors Industries . . . associated with Horace are Bill Cuddington and Charles Burdette, fast-talking, high-pressure salesmen; Joanne Nofsinger is sales stimulator while Ann Godfrey handles the Women's Division . . . Neighbors is engaged in 'ways and means of artificially increasing height' . . . a strange phenomenon now appears - "Wimpy" Ramsey's Hillbilly Barn-Stompers . . . with Barbara Whitehead and Ruth Hippert, straight from the hills of Tennessee, vocalizing . . . Madison Square Garden looms in view . . . 1000's are watching "World Renown Barton Globe Trotters" - Voight, Beene, Ball D. Wilson and Pinkard - their records - the most consecutive losses in organized basketball . . . In another part of the country, "J. Crouch Circus", fabulous and fantastic, is wintering . . . billboards are being painted by none other than Litt Furr . . . Pat Carroll as the "World Fattest Living Individual" is the feature attraction . . . in cahoots with Crouch is Ronnie Beck, who wrestles octopuses . . . Diane Clark is elephant trainer and Irene Stanley, rope climber . . . it is 3:05 P. M. and in Roanoke, Virginia at our Dear Old Alma Mater I beh old Pat Dent, busy in her library writing IOU's, while rushing out of the door is Charles "Die Hard" West headed for the Dairy Fountain . . . the scene shifts to Brooklyn where "Boston Blackie" Frank Robertson, in cooperation with policewoman Jean Price has just arrested "Fearless" Freddie Kunc, whatever the charge is, Fred is arguing that he "didn't do it" . . . So much for our fair continent, but what about abroad? In Gay Paris a brilliant young scientist, Preston, has won immortal fame in his research while a beautiful native young girl, Gay Swisher dances at night clubs - her Hooper rating is high and she frequents the "Beau Monde". Doris Pollard is demonstrating the "Moonsheen" hair bleach to Betty Lou Wilberger, who is not quite sure that her latest admirer, Ben Wade will like her a blonde . . . It is a different scene in the tropical heat of South Africa, where Guy Stockton, Presbyterian Missionary is fighting terrific odds of ignorance to spread the Gospel. In China "Stong Fong" Thornton has formed a corner on the Chinese Laundry business . . . on a South Pacific Island I see a lonely figure, disgusted with the world and living a life of solitude -- Jack Hendricks . . . a streak of light . . . it is someone running . . . yes, it's Molly Harvey . . . still running . . . after what? . . . why, boys, of course . . . The mist has enshrouded the prognostical dome . . . all is clear . . . I can see no more . . . so I bid you adieu.

We, the tenth grade students of Woodrow Wilson, being of sound mind, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament.

Danny Friend leaves his gavel to the 1950-51 student council president, with the wish that he may use it wisely and that he and Woodrow may have a successful year together . . . The Biology classes leave their old frogs and crayfish to the ninth graders - may they have much pleasure dissecting them . . . Molly Harvey and Ann Urquhart leave their ability to always have a few spare boys around to Ellen Frantz and Betty Lewis Moore . . . Joann Burd, Gaynelle Swisher, and Shirley Robertson leave their enthusiasm for the Rosox team to Nancy Milton. . .

Billy Payne sorrowfully leaves Nancy Lee Wheeler . . . Louise Dillard, Mary F. Saunders, and Ella Mae Cadd leave their quietness to Betty Jo Warden and Jean Slayton . . . Dick Brown leaves his parking ticket to Bev Mitchell who will, more than likely, make good use of it . . . Bob Stone leaves his many offices and memories of Woodrow to the class of '51, hoping their's will be as successful and happy as his have been . . . Jack Hendricks leaves Nancy Lea Harris in the arms of "Stokley and Gus" . . .

Petie Garland wills his unabridged dictionary to Jim Davis . . . Louise Moore, Bonnaleta Coxwell, Douise Duke, Nancy Fink leave their Latin "Know-how" to Bob McCoy, Bill Parsons, and "Drip" Driskil . . . Jimmy Fleming leaves his friendly, easy-going manner to all the Woodrow teachers so they can struggle on a little longer . . . D'arcy Hahn and Bruce Morrow leave their backbends and flying swans to Barbara Manlove and Sue Foster. . .

Doris Phillips leaves the choir without a soloist . . . Holly Hollingsworth leaves his many well-slept classes to Ebo Clifton . . . Pat Dent and Sally Ann Jackson will their lunch room chatter to Virginia Lee Cox and Helen Lindsley . . .

Patsy Brown, Barbara Tabor, and Shirley Hase leave the rest of the Grandin Court Gang to keep Dot Trent company during lunch hour . . . Donald "Wimpy" Ramsey leaves his big blue eyes, likeable personality and "gitar" to Herby Mills and Sid Thrasher so they may entertain Woodrow as much as he has . . . Charles West leaves his dance managership to Jim Noblit . . . Jere Jamison leaves his bottle of peroxide to Bill Bailey.

Myra Smith, Lois Masterson, Jackie Parker, Mary Frances Clark, leave Nancy Tripper and Jane Chitwood to carry on the Monogram Club . . . Norma Vecellio leaves her "gift to gab" to Sally Pleasants so Woodrow can still hear the latest gossip . . . Edwina Goodman, Joanne Bolling and Joann Nofsinger leave their booth in "Kay's" to Suzanne Garst and "Sis" Brown. Dick Sessoms and Don Humphries leave George Brammer and Al Childress to beat Monroe next year . . . Alice Huff, Betty Copenhaver, and Virginia Magee leave their "Le Petite Vocabularies" to Mike Denson and Virginia Johnston . . . Bettye Maas leaves some fortunate ninth grader the head cheer leadership. . . Peggy Norman leaves a wad of chewing gum under every desk . . . Ellen Webster, Nancy LaPrade, and Barbara Williams leave their struggles in Spanish to Judy Hilton and Marilyn Cook . . . Elsie Clarkson leaves her late-returned report card to anyone who can use them . . . Shirley Stone and Jackie Raub leave their leadership in F. H. A. to Ann Harvey and Imogene Witt . . .

We, the tenth graders, leave Woodrow Wilson with many pleasant memories behind us. Even though we will not walk through the halls of Woodrow again, we cannot help but think of those students who will follow after us. We hope that we have contributed something in return for the knowledge and training that we have received.

Dog,
Always stay as sweet as you are and always remember
Dad and Millie also Daisy. Everytime I see a ball game I'll think of you and the summer of 49
when we both went baseball crazy.

Love ya!

Dad.
