

THE NOVA STAR

Colby,

Well, everything is about to come to an end. It's been a long hard haul through these past five years but it's been fun. We've had lots of fun in Govt., Physics and all those other crap-course. All these and more. Then there was the prom last year. I'll there's a future and I hope will be seeing a lot of each other. Go get 'em at V.M.I. (except V.P.I.)

Lots of luck to a real pal,

Thru the Seasons At Northside

The seasons turn, the year progresses, and we grow and mature as students and as people. Sometimes we did our homework, but at other times we hoped the teacher wouldn't check it. We pondered the view outside, looking for the answer to a tough test question. Those of us who were upperclassmen often wished the eighth graders would slow down in the halls, or else disappear. We waited in long lunch lines to buy our lunches; others of us had friends that bought them for us. We went to the library until our passes were exhausted; and then we had to wait until next semester before we could go again. We cheered and then sat silent as our team won some games—and then lost some. Some of us cheated on tests when unprepared, but most of us were honest and took the consequences. Teachers tried to help us learn, and some of us made the effort, but others of us didn't even care. May of us joined clubs and took an active part, while others just came to school here.

"Up she goes," says senior Janice Pitts, as she keeps American tradition by beginning a new day.

Our School Year Starts with Bright, Brisk, Autumn Weather

Mr. Orr helps a student to change her schedule.

Fall is the beginning season of the school year. September is the time for memorizing schedules, locker combinations, and teachers' names. Now is the time for cheering for our football team on Friday nights and then going to hops in the cafeteria. Fall is the time for joining clubs and for organizing the upper classes. Because fall starts the school year, we here consider the eighth grade and freshman classes, who are now beginning their school careers. Thanksgiving is the time for the North Star Dance, the first semi-formal dance of the year, and also the time for selecting the seven Miss North Star nominees. Fall at Northside, a time for beginnings.

Mrs. Russo and her Junior English class laugh in an attempt to check book numbers on the first day of school.

Becky Boone, Judy Ellis, Donnie Hudgins and Lynwood Shelton return to Northside to begin their senior year.

A Nip in the Weather Brings Snow, Christmas and Exams

Winter is the middle of the school year. Here we look at the sophomore and junior classes, who are in the middle of their high school careers. Winter is the time for going to basketball games and wrestling matches; it is the time for Math-a-Rama exhibits and science fair projects. At the beginning of the Christmas vacation we take time out to go to the Christmas Band Dance. Towards the end of January comes one of the most serious times of the year: mid-term examinations. In early March we take time to go to the District Play Festival. Perhaps winter provides more time than any other season. Winter, a time for continuations.

Northside students meet in school cafeteria for their Homecoming Hop following game with Liberty.

Hungry students enjoy lunch in the cafeteria while others wait in the lunch line.

Junior Class puts long hours of work into a profitable musical to provide funds for the Junior-Senior Prom.

Commencement speakers wait reverently as the class of 1965 marches toward its future.

A panoramic view of Green Ridge Mountain serves as a background for Northside's modern building and stadium.

Warm Days Raise Spirits as Graduation and Prom Near

Spring is the last season of the school year. Here we see the seniors, who are in the last year of their high school careers. In the spring we have track meets and the Junior Class Play; in the spring our year-books are delivered.

But for the most part, spring belongs to our seniors. They are given a prom. After final examinations they take time to attend their Baccalaureate service and are graduated at Commencement Exercises. Thus the seniors begin a new phase of their life.

Spring is the end of the school year, but is actually the time for many beginnings.

Ronnie Shockley stretches forward to clear bar.

FALL

Mrs. Conner and Mrs. Richardson, our secretaries for the first half of the year, confer over a student's record folder to determine his present grade classification.

Mrs. Byrd and Miss Judge, our new secretaries, become familiar with Northside's office activities.

Mr. Hal Johnston and Mr. Eugene Orr check teacher load assignments after the first week of school.

Our Administration Serves Twelve Hundred Students

The administration at Northside serves over 1200 students in this area. This takes in grades from the eighth to the twelfth. The administration is proud of the accomplishment of several students attending such learned universities as Yale and California.

Our tall, stately principal, Mr. Turner, enforces a strict and well-timed daily schedule aided by the reinforcements of Mr. Orr and Mr. Johnston, who act as assistant principals.

Numerous advances have been motivated this year. Special class for parents and teachers are offered by the Civil Defense in order to inform adults on what tactics should be employed in time of a national disaster. Northside is also involved in President Johnson's Head-Start Program. These achievements and many others are a part of our 1965-66 school year.

Although Mr. Juel Turner, our principal, is very busy, he is always available to serve students.

Students use the library during their study periods and free time during the day for study and reference work.

Guidance Department, Library Work to Help All Students

The main objective of both library and guidance departments is to help students help themselves. Library and guidance are school processes which go hand in hand. Information concerning both departments is continuously available. Books and reference materials give the industrious insight for needed study matter while certified guidance counselors provide hope and advice for any student at Northside.

A new development for the guidance department for 1965 is centered around the eighth grade pupils. Private conferences between eighth grade students, their parents, and the guidance counselors are an important every day job. They will enable lower classmen to prepare courses in which they are most inclined to accelerate.

The library, under Miss McDavid's supervision, has accumulated a greater number of books, as compared to the previous year.

Newer and better endeavors will be the prime target for future years of library and guidance work.

One of our guidance counselors, Miss Cline, is busy helping students plan their schedules for this year.

Research for Senior English themes keeps Jimmy Smith, Katie Kelly and Doug Witt busy.

through Writing and speaking

A study of literature, grammar and basic composition is required for all students engaged in the general, commercial, or academic course of studies. Beginning with the eighth grade through the Senior class, an understanding of the grammar rules is necessary in order to master the speaking and writing techniques envalued in English. Generally, the upperclass English courses concentrated on literature and creative writing, while other courses trended toward basic grammatical skills.

Math Department Aids Pupils To Develop Abstract Thinking

The Mathematics Department of Northside offers a variety of courses, ranging in depth to challenging analytical studies. These courses are eighth through tenth grade math, Algebra I and II, geometry, trigonometry, and math analysis. Competent instructors have been validated in their college survey of mathematics, and they are able to convey the underlying meanings of the essential needs of geometry, trigonometry, algebra and math analysis.

Mathematics eight through ten concerns those students who are enrolled in commercial and general courses. Algebra II, trigonometry, math analysis, and geometry are offered to those students who are college bound.

Laboratories Prepare Us for "Scientific Crests" of Life

Challenge, ingenuity, and depth are basic words describing "the science of our universe". Science is considered an attribute of Northside High, beginning with the eighth grade through the senior year. Along with the required eighth grade science, ninth grade chemistry and physics, biology, and junior chemistry, an additional course of senior physics is available to students inclined toward the "scientific crests" of life. Northside prides itself with an up-to-date department of science equipment, laboratories, and instructions.

In physics we attempt to penetrate the secrets of natural phenomenon by testing these for ourselves through controlled experiment. Beginning with ancient man's quest for measurement, the course of study is completed with modern atomic physics, and its effect on man's development.

Social Studies Uses the Past To Interpret the Present

World History, World Geography, Economics, United States and Virginia History, American and Virginia Government, are courses offered by Northside's History Department. These courses enlarge one's understanding of our cultural heritage, problems of the past and future, current events, and governments of the world as well as our own. In addition, these studies acquaint students with achievements of the past and needs of the future.

Government shows "compromise" at home and in international affairs. An overall learning of federal, state, and local government shows students a few phases of democracy.

An underlying purpose of U.S. and Virginia History is to grasp an understanding and an appreciation of our country that will enable us to become active citizens.

Foreign Languages Help Us To Understand Others Better

Foreign languages are needed for communication with neighbors in other countries. They are offered for all students, especially those going to college. The students listen to their pronunciation through the use of tape recorders. French, Spanish, and Latin are offered at Northside to enable students better opportunities as successful world leaders. Clubs for each language have been organized for this purpose. Miss Martin sponsors the Latin Club, Miss Redman and Miss Flora sponsor the French Club, and Mrs. Hartigan sponsors the Spanish Club.

Today's emphasis is upon the well-rounded student. This student cannot be produced in the classroom, alone. It is the responsibility of Mr. Isabell, Mr. Sloan, Mrs. Clemmens, and Mrs. Kavitz to see that students receive the physical part of this all-aroundness.

Each class has a predesignated plan which must be accomplished each year. This program is designed to provide each student with the opportunity to greatly improve his physical condition. The class events vary from basketball to laps around the track.

Each day when the phys. ed. student is not in the gym, he is in the classroom. This takes up approximately 90 of the 180 days. The courses range from health to driver training.

Sophomore boys take advantage of any spare time to play a game of basketball at the end of gym class.

By Business Subjects We Prepare for Future

Our business education department is a big help to our students and school. Students are taught shorthand, typing, the use of the duplicating machines, and how to use spirit masters. With this type of education and experience, students have a very good background for work when they finish school.

With the skills they acquire, they find it easy to find jobs in the Roanoke Valley. Such assets as bookkeeping, typing, shorthand, and the like, enable good quality paying jobs.

Led under the direction of Mrs. Noel, from the typing and shorthand division, Mrs. Allison, from the General Business and Bookkeeping division, and Miss Weaver, from the shorthand and Typing I division, students are thoroughly taught needed techniques.

A new system of personal typing is devised to acquaint academically bound students as how typing is mastered.

Miss Carpenter, a Radford senior student teacher at Northside, instructs on shorthand characters.

Variety of Elective Subjects

Enrich Traditional Program

Northside is fortunate in having a wide variety of electives from which a student may choose. Dramatics, Art, and Driver's Education are among the most popular subjects offered.

Students taking Driver's Education under Mrs. Garst spend many hours of their study halls trying to learn how to park a car. By taking "Behind the Wheel" students can learn the theory as well as the practice of becoming a good driver.

Mrs. Coffindaffer spurs prospective actors onward in Dramatics as she directs the regular dramatic productions as well as the Junior and Senior class plays. The casts practice continually, striving to perfect their roles.

Art students consistently show their skill, by their exhibits in the display case as well as in the art room. Mrs. Harris works diligently to help her students make the most of their natural creativity and ingenuity.

These elective classes provide for the varied interests of the students and help to broaden their outlook and education.

Mrs. Garst teaches her Driver's Education students the fundamentals of being a good driver.

Mrs. Vaughn, Jean VanFossen, and Janice Kennett measure Brenda Blanchard's jumper.

Terry Sutherland, Mike Williams, Charles Bordwine and Teddy Worrell enjoy sanding on kitchen chopping blocks.

Practical Arts Introduce New And Modern Work Techniques

Mr. John Seivers
Mrs. Ann Vaughn

An up-to-date Home Economics Department is most definitely situated at Northside. Our competent instructors, Mrs. Bower and Mrs. Vaughan, provide busy schedules in the sewing cooking divisions which offer complete sources for study for girls enrolled in their first, second, or third year courses.

The Department of Industrial Arts satisfies the needs of many a Northside boy. Under the supervision of Mr. Seivers and Mr. Orr, students exhibit craftsmanship while learning to use nature's resources for practical purposes. Sketching is the main objective in the division of Mechanical Drawing, where students are aided by country music provided by Mr. Seivers.

Students taking mechanical arts, under direction of Mr. Powell, are Larry Williams and Jerry Rhodes.

Vocational School Presents Diversified Practical Subjects

The Roanoke County Educational Center has offered vocational training to the young people of Roanoke County since the school year 1962-1963. During the school year 1963-1964 all vocational classes except Practical Nursing and Cosmetology were moved into the new school plant at 1760 Boulevard, Salem, Virginia, near the Veterans Administration Hospital. Each course offered by the Roanoke County Educational Center is designed to meet the needs of persons over the age of sixteen who plan to enter employment following graduation.

Junior and senior academic courses are offered including English, United States History, and Government to those pupils who have not yet had them prior to entering vocational school. Also, certain science and mathematics classes will be offered to enable pupils to make up any deficiencies in them. Students entering the program in the eleventh grade and successfully completing the senior year will receive a high school diploma.

Vikings Have a Poor Season During a Year of Rebuilding

The highlights of this season were impressive victories over Drewry Mason and Lord Botetourt. The Vikings clobbered the Cavaliers by a score of 32-0 which was the most impressive victory of the season. Robert Crowder's three pass interceptions coupled with Tommy Taylor's scoring outburst helped to win the game. Though the rest of the season was not highlighted with victories, the team gave the crowd plenty to yell at as they tried desperately to defeat rivals who were much stronger.

Power Banner and Coaches Inspire with Little Success

A dismal year was highlighted by the fine individual performances of several football players.

Tommy Taylor was perhaps the stalwart of the team. He was picked Back of the Week by the Roanoke World News staff for his two touchdown performances and was Most Valuable player and Back for the team. His blocking and running from his fullback position proved to be the most reliable on the team.

In the line Tommy Oyler proved himself to be an outstanding line player. For his outstanding line play Tommy was chosen first team tackle all Blue Ridge District.

Even after being hampered by an ankle injury Colby Trammel was also selected on the all district Team in the position of back.

Our Team Morale Was Never Low nor Lacking in Enthusiasm

Pete Smith, fine senior end, catches a pass for 6 points against a Viking opponent, Patrick Henry.

This year proved to be a long one for the Junior Varsity football team. Due to injuries and the fact that many of the better J.V.'s moved up to varsity, the team had a losing season. Having only seventeen boys out for the start of the year, Coach Shelton had little material to work with.

The year was highlighted by convincing victories over Jefferson and William Byrd.

The defense proved to be the stalwart of the team allowing only 78 points in 6 games. The offense failed to score in four of 6 games.

Homecoming Is Highlighted by Northside's third homecoming was highlighted by the Announcement of the Homecoming court and the Homecoming queen. Robin Dearing was chosen queen, and was crowned by Mr. Turner during halftime ceremonies. The homecoming court which was chosen by the football team, was made up of eight students, all juniors and seniors: Debbie Sherwood, Bonny Davidson, Lou Ann Robertson, Linda Pagans, Pat Garst, Betty Knotts, and Linda Farmer.

The week before, which was called Pep Week, the Pep Club decorated the school in green and white streamers, to promote school spirit. A pep assembly was held, and students were requested to wear green and white, our school colors.

Although the football players made a commendable showing, we were defeated by Liberty High School, with a score of 14 to 0.

Although we lost, the Homecoming game will be remembered by every student who had a part in it.

Pretty Robin Dearing was pleasantly surprised when Mr. Turner crowned her Northside's Homecoming Queen during the half-time ceremonies at the Liberty game.

School Spirit Is Promoted By the Pep Club Projects

The main project of the Pep Club this year has been the Homecoming activities. This week began with Green and White days and ended with the game and the hop. The weekly theme was "Give us Liberty or Give us Death!"

Half-time festivities were accented by the outstanding performance of the band, the crowning of the Homecoming Queen, Robin Dearing, and the recognition of Mr. Football, David MacAllister. Members worked diligently all year to provide posters to exhibit throughout the school to remind students of the ball games and urge their presence. A pep band was organized to help the cheerleaders and Pep Club increase school spirit. A medal was awarded to the member who showed the most school spirit.

The Staff Anticipates a Full Year of Bustling Ideas

The North Winds proudly presents the news of Northside. The activities of the students, faculty, and community are presented in ten issues, published monthly. The average student seldom realizes the work which goes into each issue of the North Winds. It is the result of many hours of planning and work; ads are sold, stories are written, copy proofed and typed, proofs checked, headlines written, pages formed, final adjustments and checks are made, and finally the paper is sent to press. The North Winds is a member of the Southern Interscholastic Press Association, where it received an honor award.

Carolyn Wertz Is Presented The "Miss Northstar Award"

The "Miss Northstar Award" is presented each year, by the yearbook, to an outstanding Junior or Senior girl who typifies the best of our teen-agers. This year Margery Somers Foster, Dean of Hollins College, felt Carolyn Elaine Wertz, a junior, was the girl. The seven finalists were elected by the student body. Then the finalists presented two photographs and an essay about themselves to Dean Foster. They included in their essay activities, aspirations, attitudes, subject, grades, and any other information that they felt was pertinent about themselves and would help to select them as the desirable symbol of Northside High School.

Miss Carolyn Wertz has been chosen for the "Miss Northstar Award" by Margery Somers Foster, Dean of Hollins College, who felt she was the most outstanding girl considering all qualifications.

F.T.A. members Brenda Hofawger, Jeannie Kelly, Brian Harmon, Lou Ann Robertson and Carol Clarkson confer with Mrs. Brammer about an assembly which the Future Teachers of America will present.

F.T.A. Gives Students Practical Experience with Teaching Profession

The Future Teachers of America is a club for any Northside student in grades nine through twelve who is interested in the teaching profession. Through the club, members may receive pamphlets concerning teaching as a profession in the United States. During the year the F.T.A. has various activities. These include earning money for the stadium fund. During American Education Week, members serve refreshments to the faculty. Throughout the year, they help Miss McDavid in the library, cataloging books and checking attendance. They also sponsor a talent show assembly featuring Northside students in singing, dancing and comedian groups.

Roman Banquet, Teachers' Luncheon Highlight Year of Activity

The Latin Club begins another year of fun and excitement with its traditional slave sale. These students are sold to the highest bidders just as slaves were once sold in ancient Rome. During this week, the masters have authority to demand of their slave (or slaves) certain unusual tasks. The climax of the slave week is the gala Roman banquet. The members are fortunate to have entertainment provided for them by the slaves.

This year the club also sponsored a Christmas hop and a luncheon for the teachers. The second Monday of every month was reserved as Pin Day. With the dues received and the money earned from a bake sale, the hop was a great success and the teachers enjoyed their dinner on a faculty work day.

Those students with an A or B average and that are interested in mathematics work together to form the Square Roots Math Club. They serve with the Cube Roots to promote a stronger interest for math in the student body. This is carried out by sponsoring the annual Math-A-Rama and Northside's math library. During their study periods members of Square Roots also assist the math teachers.

Cube Roots Investigate New Advanced Math for Projects

The Cube Roots Senior Mathematics Club serve as an outlet for students with interests in this area. It provides an excellent math library for research and pleasure. The club jointly sponsored a hop with the Square Roots Math Club. It also donated a geometric figures and designs set to the math department. A slide rule class was offered for the benefit of the students.

SCA Issues Membership ID Cards for Student Activities

The first SCA membership cards were issued on opening day, and the SCA held its first meeting of the year prior to the first pep rally at which time an amendment to the constitution was passed. During eighth grade orientation, the SCA served as guides. In October, SCA Representatives attended the district convention at Andrew Lewis High School. The SCA held the election for the United Fund Queen and a mock election for Governor. A sweat shirt day was held in December to raise money for the Sweet Heart Dance which was held in February. The SCA Spirit Thing provided a boost to school spirit during wrestling and basketball seasons. The campaigning for SCA offices and the subsequent election of officers was held in March. An induction assembly for the new officers was held shortly afterward which concluded the year's work.

WINTER

Coach Gallion's unshakeable calm gives no outward evidence of his inner turmoil as the Vikings fight.

Vikings Are 2nd in Tournament To Climax a Winning Season

Northside was host for the 1965-66 Blue Ridge District Basketball Tournament, held the 23, 25, and 26 of February. Northside finished second in the tournament. We met William Byrd on the first night and defeated them 69-52. On Friday night Northside met Cave Spring who had placed second in district play. In a hard fought game we defeated the Knights 59-46. With this win the Vikings advanced to the finals for the big play-off with the district champs, Covington. They had beaten us twice previously, and this was no exception. The Cougars downed us soundly with a 66-43 victory.

Northside was presented with the Basketball Sportsmanship Trophy in recognition of the excellent support of our team by the student body.

The Vikings had a winning season, and placed third in District B-1. Two members of our team, Coby Trammell and Billy Short, were selected on the All District Second Team.

Freddie Hutchins gets free, shoots for two points in the Freshmen game against Lord Botetourt.

Freddie Hutchins, Paul Trout, and Gene Fielder led the Freshmen basketball team with quick, flying action this season. All three of these boys averaged in double figures for the season. The baby Vikings also received good support from Roger Bryant, an eighth grader, and Tommy Clayton, a 6'1" ninth grader. The future of the Northside Freshmen and Junior Varsity teams shows much promise.

Students Are Represented by a Variety of Works and Honors

Recognition went to a number of students this year. Betty Knotts was awarded the Betty Crocker Homemaker Award after receiving the highest score on the test of any senior taking Home Economics at Northside. Letters of commendation from the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Tests were awarded to Diana Blackman, Wallace Akers, and Anne Dudley for their high scores on the tests. The D. A. R. Good Citizenship award was presented to Suzanne Holdan, who was chosen after competing with other senior girls, through student election and faculty approval. Several juniors serve each year as graduation marshals. They are chosen by the faculty on the basis of scholarship and leadership. Among these are: Betty Knotts, Suzanne Holden, Cleo Perdue, Annamary Palma, Janice Pitts, Wallace Akers, John Ferguson, David Vaughan, Roger Williams, and Roger Keffer.

Dian Staggs, Oratory Contest Winner, ignores Chris Bland, National Merit Scholar Finalist, as he tries to open the trophy case to display their awards.

Marshals David Vaughan and Roger Williams help Mr. Orr line up graduating Seniors Linda Neal, Tina Egge and Sharon Blumberg for the processional.

The Northside chapter of the National Honor Society was organized in 1961. The aim and purposes of our chapter are to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to render service, promote leadership and develop character. Membership is based on academic excellency, leadership ability, character and service. Members are selected from sophomore, junior and senior classes and are approved by a faculty committee. The National Honor Society has had several projects for this year and the highlight for the entire year was the receiving of our pins.

Cards for Vietnam Servicemen Prove Motto of "We Serve"

This year, Northside Keyettes truly lived up to their motto, "We serve." The many projects have included; sending Christmas cards to servicemen in Vietnam, aiding in collection for the March of Dimes, and addressing envelopes for Christmas seals. The national Keyette project was furnishing two Peace Corps schools in Guatamala, and Northside Keyettes made money for this by conducting bake sales, selling toothbrushes, and selling doughnuts.

The national convention was held in Washington, D. C., during the month of March. Delegates from Northside who attended enjoyed the speakers, the banquet, the dance, and the election of Keyette national officers.

Christian Emphasis month was observed in November by having guest speakers, and by visiting the Greek Orthodox Church.

A new innovation at Northside was the clinic, which has proven to be a great success. Keyettes took turns spending their study halls keeping the clinic.

The Key Club won top honors in local parades with its float of smiling riders depicting "Key to Christmas".

The Key Club is one of Northsides most important organizations. Its main function is that of general service to the school. Such service includes: parking cars at football games, printing of student handbooks, and selling of drinks at sports activities.

Meetings are held at North Roanoke Baptist Church on Monday nights. This exemplifies the Key Club as a Christian organization.

In November the club had its New Member Banquet at the Oasis Restaurant.

One of the most significant projects for this year was the Christmas Float. This float was built by the Key Club and entered in two parades. In the Roanoke parade third place and in the Salem parade won third place.

The district meeting will be held in Martinsville.

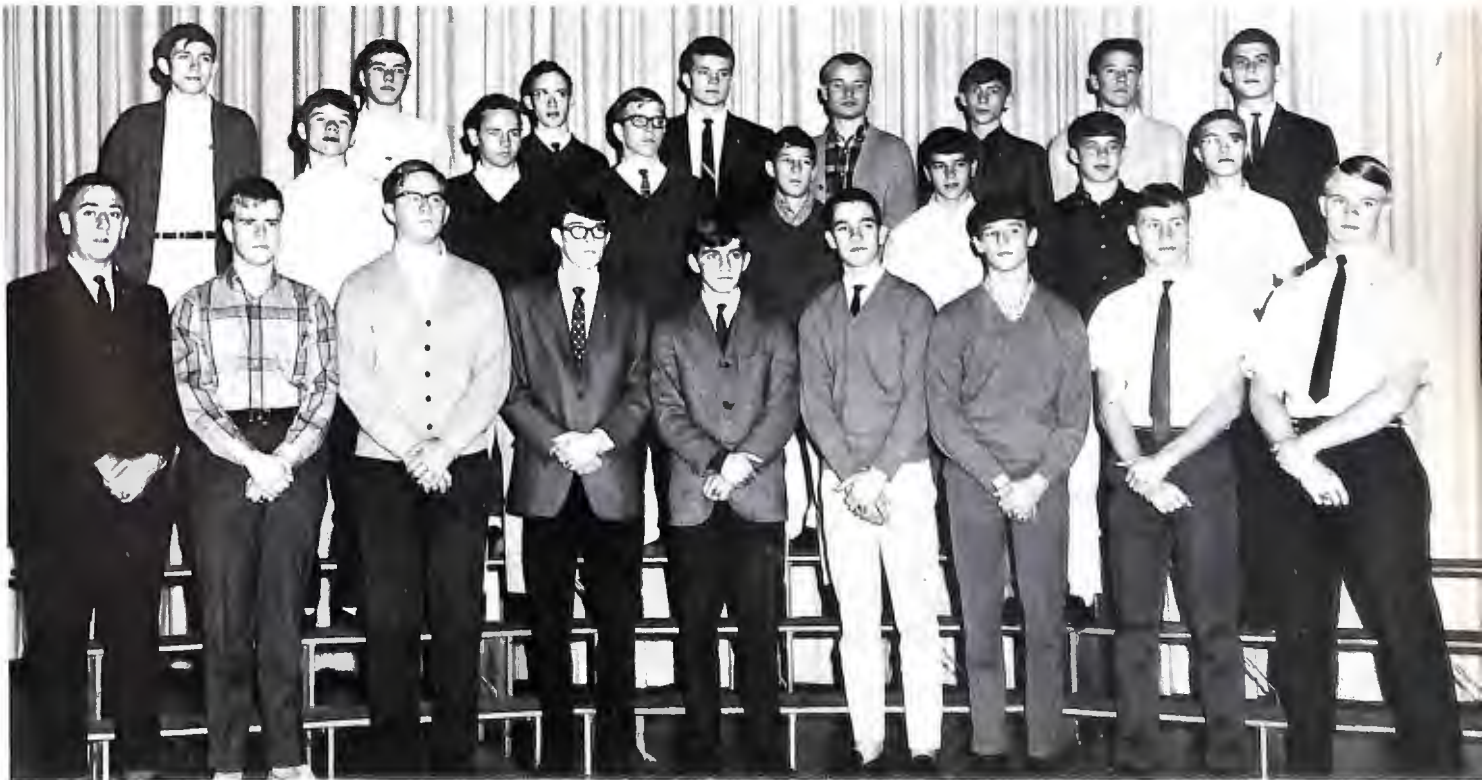

Ropie Bayse helps open the school year by distributing Key Club-sponsored student handbooks.

Andy Clingempeel, Shelby Mills, and Susan Vannoy are officers with Mrs. Coffindaffer for Polyfacets.

At Northside dramatic talent is channeled into plays superbly produced by Mrs. Coffindaffer. This select group of beginning actors have bound themselves into a club, the Polyfacets. This club performs a variety of one act plays which are given at various times during the year. The club members work hard as stage hands for the Juniors and Seniors when they present their class plays.

Coffindaffer. Third Row: Ronnie Daniel, Steve Hale, John Ferguson, David Hambrick, Roger Williams, Mr. Pederson.

Among the many active and essential organizations in our school is the group known as the National Thespians. To obtain membership, it is necessary for one to acquire ten thespian points which are awarded for meritorious participation in the dramatic arts. These are achieved by participation in plays, which includes backstage work, publicity as well as actual performance in the plays, and by attending plays. This organization is devoted to the advancement of dramatic arts in high schools. This club is sponsored by our dramatic's teacher, Mrs. Coffindaffer.

The Girls' Athletic Association offers an outlet to girls who are interested in participating in sports. They may participate in either intramural or intermural sports, or both. It sponsors a varsity girls' basketball team, the VIKETTES. These girls compete with other area high school teams in the City-County Girls' Basketball League. The G.A.A.'s also sponsor a girls' track team.

This organization is based on a point system. A minimum of 500 points is necessary for a letter. These points are earned by participation in after school sports.

On Saturday mornings members meet to play such games as volleyball, basketball, ring tennis, and ping pong under the supervision of faculty sponsors, Mrs. Clemons or Mrs. Kavitz. When these teachers are unable to attend, Miss Flora or Miss Brammer fill in.

At the close of each year the members hold a banquet. The awards, letters, and certificates are presented at that time.

Y-Teens is a division of the Young Women's Christian Association in which girls take part for the benefit of the community and world wide projects.

This club works together for a closer understanding between themselves and other girls of different schools and nations. This year they went to Washington to meet with Y-Teens from all over the world.

"Practice Makes Perfect" Is Slogan of Ambitious and Happy Choir

The Northside Concert Choir completed a very successful year. Under the very capable direction of Mr. Tom Horne, they performed for many varied activities. Among these activities were: the annual Christmas Concert, caroling at the Crossroads Mall, district chorus, and the annual Spring Concert.

Many of the choir members participated in All-State Chorus. Among these were: Chris Bland, Helen Brown, Carole Crowder, Pat Garst, Nancy Gilbert, Diane Gorman, Steve Hale, Linda Hammer, Grian Harmon,

Our band, with its new director, Mr. Tom Horn, has improved this year in both size and quality. The band participates in many school activities and marches in special parades. It lightens our Pep Rallies with its sparkling music and boosts our spirits at football games.

The concert band takes part in musical activities, many outside of school. They are well represented this year by eight members in All-State Band. The entire band participates in the District Band Festival, and the Solo and Ensemble Festivals.

The band raises funds by selling its delicious candy and by sponsoring the annual Christmas Dance at Northside.

Wrestling Team Ties For First

In four years Coach Ken Shelton has accomplished what many schools have not been able to do in ten times that number—producing champions.

Last year the Vikings produced a great team, five regional champions. This year's varsity team saw five of its starters leave for college and saw a lot to live up to. The 1966 Varsity Wrestling Team proved itself equal to the challenge, they are champions. With a come-from-behind victory in the finals, they became co-champions with Pulaski in the South-Western Region. The Vikings were ten points behind and had six boys in the finals while Pulaski had seven. Four of the Vikings met four wrestlers from Pulaski, winning all but one match. As a result, they tied the score, becoming co-champions of the meet.

For the third year in a row the Vikings captured the City-County championship. The team proved itself superior to anything this area had to offer with five victories over arch-rival Andrew Lewis and Pulaski. The Pulaski match was an exciting one, with the Vikings winning by four points—18 to 14.

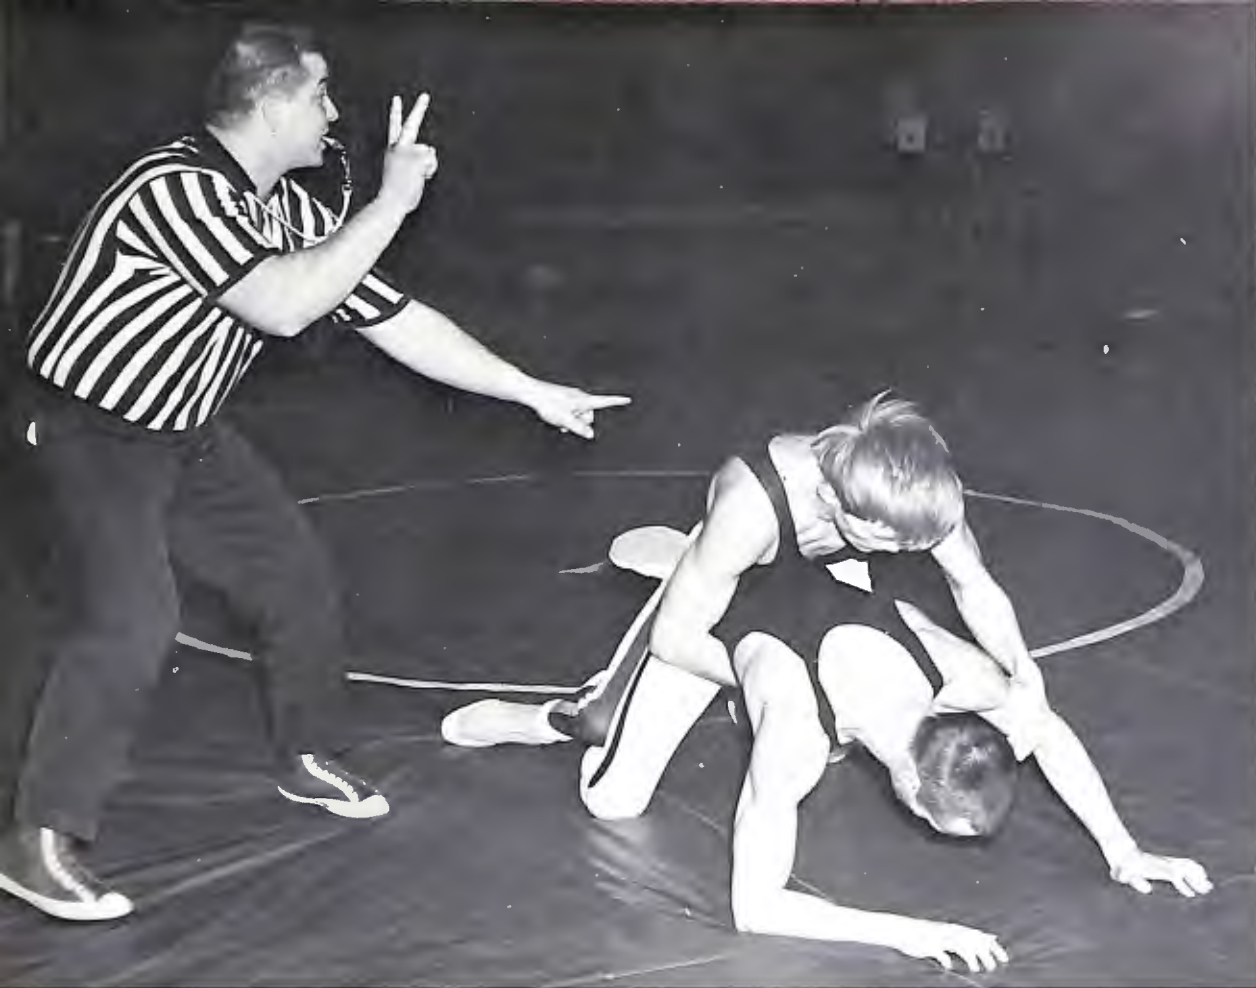

Jimmy Tayloe skillfully applies the crouch and half Nelson to opponent from Fleming in a win for Northside.

Juniors Are Now Part of "the Upperclass" at Northside

Ambition, initiative, and hard work are three words that describe Northside's Junior Class of '65-66. Comprising this class are mixed groups of ladies and gentlemen who endeavor to fulfill their promise of a stupendous Junior-Senior Prom. These busy little bees devise money-making projects to fatten the class treasury. During the course of the year, profitable projects as car washing, hops, door-to-door selling, and assemblies offer a chance to benefit the treasury. Dues also aid in playing an immense role for our income.

Our sponsors, Mr. Johnston, Mrs. Noel, Mrs. Vaughan, and Mr. Seivers promote a basis for excellent ideas and supervision.

President, Bobby Thurman, shows great aptitude in his leadership qualities as well as keeping meetings in order. Butch Gibson, portrays a model vice-president for the Junior Class. Secretary, Mary Kaye Harless, keeps an abundant list of notes for future references and treasurer, Vannessa Carter, guards the money bag. Jacque French and David Andrews fulfill the job of reporters to further flow our publicity.

Varsity Cheerleaders: Pam Morgan, JoLynn Isbell, Mascot; Linda Arthur, Susan Vannoy, Head Cheerleader; Shelby Mills, Brenda Preas, Carolyn Howell, Carolyn Wertz, and Gloria Wickham hold door to 1965-1966 basketball season.

Varsity Cheerleaders Maintain Enthusiasm Whether Win or Lose

The Varsity Cheerleaders, through many hours of practice and hard work, bring pep and smiles to the students of Northside. During their study halls, they make posters announcing all the events, badges for the faculty and students to wear and doors of crepe-paper streamers for the team to run through at the beginning of games. The Varsity in their new uniforms, construct new cheers and alter old ones. They attended the Cheer Rally in which they sang a song along with Northside students and performed some cheers. They were judged for their originality, formation, pep, precision and school participation. The Cheer Rally was to show school spirit by bringing the cheerleaders of all the schools together.

Junior Varsity Cheerleaders Lead Their Teams to Victory

The Junior Varsity Cheerleaders began weekly practices in the summer and continued throughout the school year. Introducing the eighth graders to Northside began their year of numerous activities. Looking smart in their new corduroy culottes and monogrammed vests, they cheered our Junior Varsity and Freshman teams on to victory. Though we especially remembered them selling green and white shakers during football season, each week we could find them in front hall selling tickets to our games.

Our mascot learns by mimicing Varsity cheerleader, Carolyn Wertz, at a practice for an important game.

Coaches Elliot and Isbell give a pep talk to members of the track team before the Patrick Henry meet.

1965 Varsity Track Team Finishes Off a Perfect Season

The spring of 1965 found Viking cindermen gradually and positively sprinting through their most successful season.

The track was always fast for our fleet-footed, save perhaps a trip to the Concord Relays. Here, the West Virginia rains dropped the Vikings to second place in a field of nearly twenty schools.

Back in the Old Dominion the Vikings were peerless. Coach Ralph Isbell found no need to put pressure on his runners. He knew they all possessed a will to win. Accordingly, the dedication, spirit, and skill of each individual made for a winning team. This teamwork enabled the Vikings to shatter all opposition—one rival down after another—precision gave success.

The District 1-B meet became the real test of Viking power. The meet was held at Franklin County High, on a new gravel and clay track. The contest went slowly, but not without the excitement of record-breaking feats. As the last events came near, the Vikings were on top—with just a two-point advantage over the eager Knights of Cave Spring. But the Vikings held their own ... to become District Champions and later seventh in the State.

Viking Track and Field Team Set Records in 880 and Mile Relay

Joe McCoy wins first place in the Broad Jump at the District track meet held at Franklin County High.

Bill Epperly and Greg McGee watch Don Byrd's putting the shot. They observe his style for helpful pointers.

Viking Ronnie Custer, who is Northside's Cross-Country great, won four out of five distance meets. Ronnie is timed by coaches, Isbell and Sloan, as he defeats Fleming and establishes a new city and county record.

Our Golf Team Shoots a Full Schedule of C-C Matches

Northside's Golf Team played a full schedule of matches. They played twice with Northcross, Andrew Lewis, Roanoke Catholic, and Cave Spring. They played Wm. Fleming once.

Although Northside did not win a match, our three top men, Karl Phillips, David Kidd and Mike Kidd provided stiff competition for our opponents. Karl Phillips took High Individual Honors several times.

Senior Karl Phillips displays winning technique that he used in city-county golf tournament.

Brenda Preas' project was selected to represent the Northside Chapter in the State F.B.L.A. contest.

Members display pretty bow-wrapped packages to be given at their Christmas party for Salem orphans.

F.B.L.A. Members Use Businessmen to Further Their Experience

The Northside Chapter of the Future Business Leaders of America is a part of the national organization dedicated to fulfilling the purposes of promoting good business education and creating more interest and understanding in the intelligent choice of a business occupation.

Our theme for this year is GROWTH AND SERVICE THROUGH BUSINESS. We have bought books for the library, typed for teachers, given to the United Fund, sent Christmas cards to the soldiers in Viet Nam, given a Christmas party for children and sent valentines to underprivileged children.

Our members participate in contests, attend conventions, present assembly programs, listen to speakers, put on skits, go bowling, see demonstrations and help with many other activities during the school year.

Hours and Hours of Work Are Worthwhile When "the Northstar"

This gracious lady, Mrs. Minnich, is the sponsor of The North Star who kept things going and to whom we, the staff, wish to express our appreciation.

A blazing, yet sophisticated, new North Star makes its appearance in May of each year. This year it is headed by Annamary Palma, Editor-in-Chief, who supervises the two staff divisions. The Editorial division composes layouts, copy and all written ideas and works dutifully under the supervision of Chris Bland. The Business staff is the other division on the working front. Its duties are numerous. Members sell advertisements which supply funds to help publish the annual. The subscription campaign, handled by Diane Staggs this year, sold yearbooks to more than eighty per-cent of the students. All facets pertaining to business are guided by Betty Knotts. However, the real success of the book is the versatile, flexible, willing staff members who work at any and all of the multitudinous tasks which are necessary to meet deadlines, whether the task be business or editorial in nature.

The North Star is kept up-to-date on the latest "Fads" and "good tastes" by the SIPA convention, attended annually by staff members in April in Lexington, Virginia. This training shows in our proud staffs' expressions as they present the new annual at the unveiling assembly, which is followed by a gala signing party that night with free cokes for everyone.

Annual Business Staff—Front Row: Faye Snead, Vanessa Carter, Pat Ball, Debbie Hines, Dian Staggs.

Arrives, Staff Is Joyous and Exuberant Over Accomplishment

Carol Clarkson, Jacque French, Becky McLeod, Gray Sheets. Larry Meador, Tony Mattox, Steve Minninch, David Vaughan, Roger Williams, Anne Dudley.

Special Elected Representatives Help Promote Civic Projects

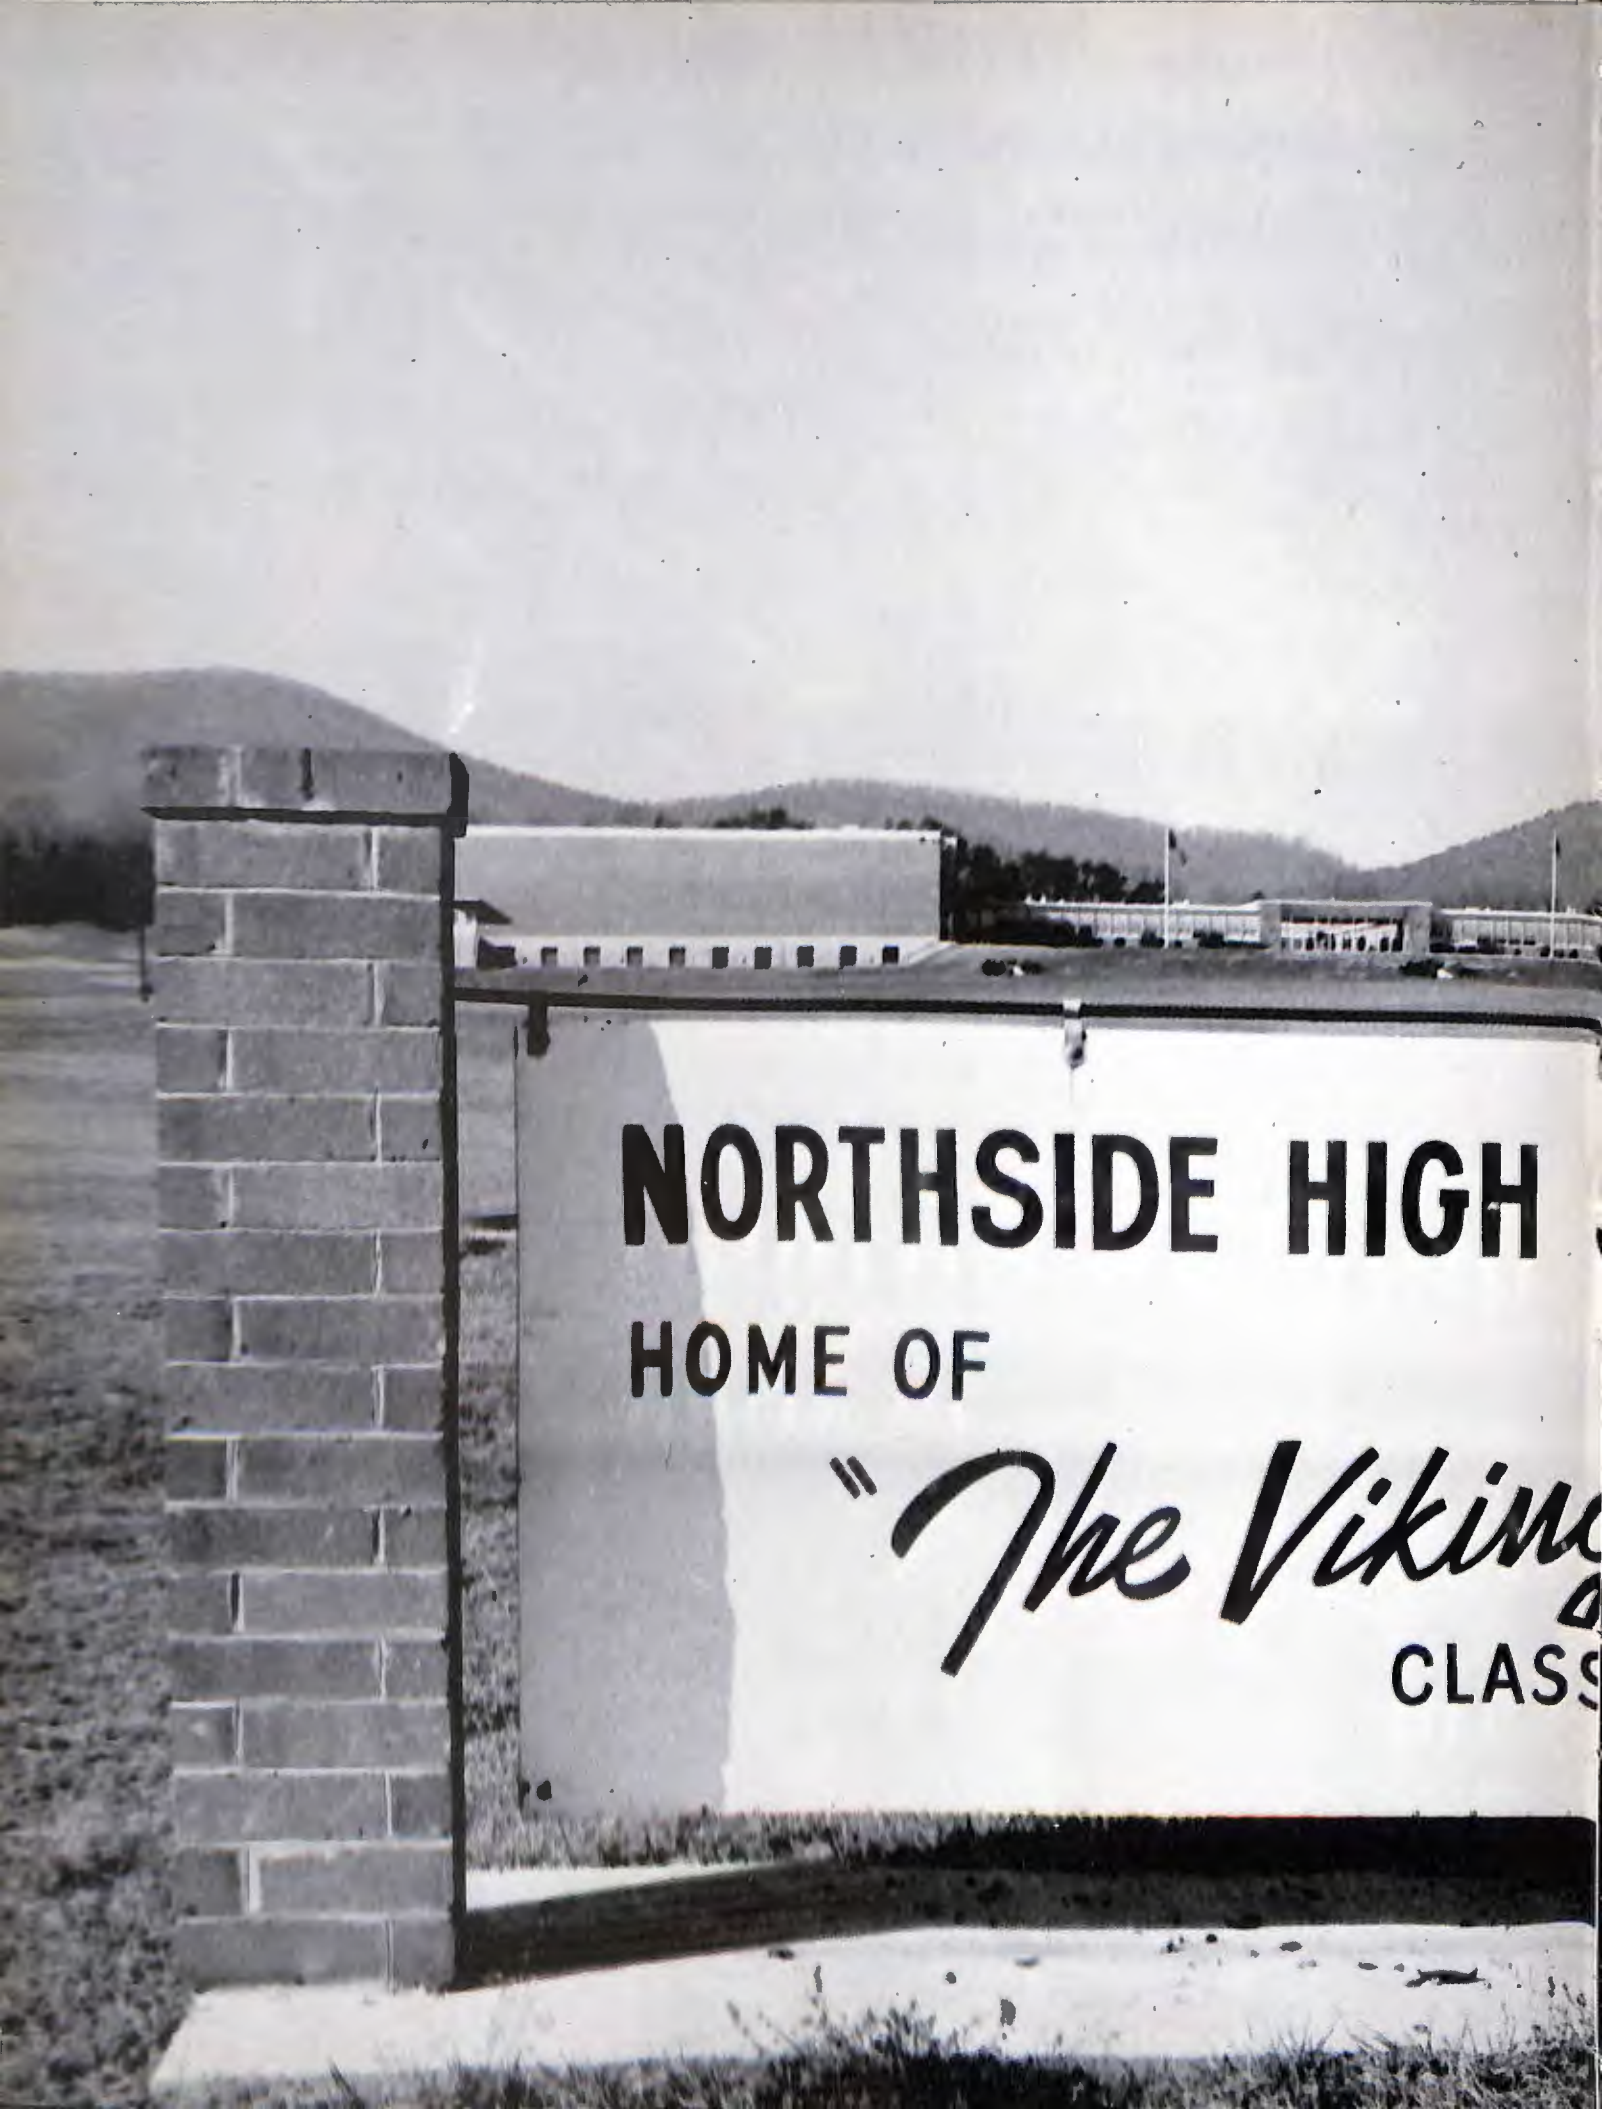

Shelby Mills was nominated and elected by the students of Northside to represent Northside in the kick-off drive, where she was elected Miss United Fund of 1965 for the Roanoke area. She made many personal appearances during the drive to help raise money for the United Fund. Lou Ann Robertson and Shelby Mills did a fine job of representing Northside High School in the Christmas Parade of Salem and are to be congratulated for braving the cold of the night in order to do this task.

Vivid eyes and a radiant smile explicate the glee shown on Shelby Mills face, Miss United Fund 1965.

man, Mrs. Ford, Mr. Beckner, Mr. Hutts, Robert Lackey, Mr. Ferguson, Mr. Terry, and Mr. Green.

These Northside students work in the office during their study halls. They are Brenda Obenchain, Andy Clingempeel, Vickie Miles, Carolyn Cole, Shelby Mills, Donna Perdue, Carole Sledd, June Hamblin, and Brenda Fahnestock.

All Our Students Are Helped by Northside's Service Departments

Our service department is composed of many people who give their valuable time to make Northside run more smoothly.

Our bus drivers get us here to school every day and are here to pick us up every afternoon.

The custodians try to keep the building spotless and work very hard every afternoon and night cleaning so that the building will be clean when we arrive every morning.

Thanks to our cafeteria workers, students are given a choice of two hot and nourishing meals every day. They are prepared so that they are healthful, tasty and appetizing.

The students who work in the Guidance office during their study halls, help the office prepare papers and other items necessary to complete a school day. They prepare posters, file folders and do other rewarding works in the office.

Cafeteria workers: Mrs. Paxton, Mrs. Setzer, Mrs. Dulaney, Mrs. Turner, Mrs. McDaniel, Mrs. Arrington and Mrs. Lugar.

In 1882 Edison had a great idea.

And it wasn't the electric light.

The whole idea of investor-ownership of electric light and power companies began when Thomas A. Edison and a group of investors financed his first power plant more than 80 years ago.

Since then, investor-owned companies like ours have become an integral part of America's Free Enterprise system. That explains why today we have at our fingertips more electric power than any other country in the world.

And it's this same Free Enterprise system that puts at your fingertips greater opportunity, greater expectation for success than can be hoped for by any other young people in the world.

Colby,

Did you realize that I was with you for a couple of months? I was that friend. Now you remember the date date, we went to the prom, and how went with me. I was came to the surprise birthday party, and I that it was a bit
jealous of you flirting with some people. Oh
you. Kiss

Another year has passed for the Northside students as we recall the different events of the year. Some will remember fall, with the suspenseful football games. Others will vividly recall the winter with the fallen snow or maybe the excitement of basketball season. Spring will remain in the hearts of juniors and seniors as the season when the long awaited prom became a reality. And then came exams, with all that last minute studying.

Spring is the closing of the 1965-66 year and many are leaving to go to a higher future. But there will always be memories of the years at Northside, and of that last day when the flag was slowly lowered.

Mike Gauldin and Chris Bland lower the flag to symbolize the end of another year.

You know when I realized something was wrong, that's when you offered me your ring. I knew that I liked your smiling face. I but sometimes I'm almost impossible, at those times I could scream at my self. I but you also think I'm a terrible tomboy, always running around jumping up and down and all the ^(boy's) ~~the~~ other stupid things I do. But we did have fun, I think I enjoyed the dance best of all. How about the time we almost had to stay and clean up after one of them, man were you mad, it took you 30 minutes to get over it.
 Think of all the times you had to wait on me it must be a million. But then I've waited on you. Call I want to thank you for being "mother, father, sister, brother, maid, cook, dresser, &
 all the other things you've been to me.
 You know that I'm simply crazy about you and the things you've done for me over this months of going together. Sure we have had our bad times but the good times out weigh them by far. And when you go away to school next year I want you to remember me a little bit, I'll remember you. If we were to break up tomorrow I would have not regret at all. I want to wish with all my heart the very best possible to you in the coming years.
 In my opinion you're great and I love you for it. Please don't change, darling.

There are lots of things else I could say but I think those are understood between us.
 I love you,
 Debbie

Colby,
Best of luck (now there I go) but I do want to wish you all the luck in the world.
Don't forget all our good times and bad (the bad!)
Don't forget me
