DEDICATION

This year, we have chosen to honor a member of the faculty for her untiring zeal in helping us in any way she possibly could. We feel greatly indebted to her, who, by her able direction, has guided us through many difficult situations. She has enlightened our pathways and led us to a better understanding of the problems we must face. We have rejoiced, also, in the enthusiasm which she has shown as sponsor of the S.C.A. and in the renewed vigor which she has inspired in us. Thus, with pride, pleasure, and true admiration we dedicate the 1949 issue of
THE ANCHOR

CLASS HISTORY

On September 6, 1945, a group of fifty young and eager boys and girls came skipping through the gates of Max Meadows High School, where they knew their lives would not be like the years they had left behind.

We found our first year of high school very different, because we were not used to changing classes. However, it didn't take long for us to become accustomed to this new system. We completed that year and found that we enjoyed it even though we did have to work very hard, for each of us tried to make a good start.

Upon entering our sophomore year we found one student less, Garland Smith, who was drowned during the summer.

Our junior year was a more exciting year, because we received our class rings in December and entertained the seniors at Hungry Mother's Park. Sylvia Simpkins joined us from Graham High School in Bluefield, Virginia.

Upon entering our senior year we found 17 members. Connie Huff dropped out and was married. We still have 16 members who are striving to graduate. Bill Pope, an ex-Marine came back this year to complete his studies with us.

We have worked hard this year, and now that it is over we are beginning to realize that the happiest part of our lives is finished. We sincerely hope that this background will lead us on to a better future.

CLASS WILL

We the members of the class of 1949, after the completion of four long years at Max Meadows High School, do in all sincerity make this our last will and testament.

With this phase of our education completed, we, the members of the senior class, do solemnly leave the faculty of Max Meadows High School our deep sincerity and appreciation for their guidance and helpfulness throughout our high school career. To Mr. Morehead, our principal, we leave our achievements and our balance of thirteen cents in the treasury.

To the present juniors and future seniors we leave our cooperativeness with the principal.

To Miss Hopkins, our sponsor, we leave our deep appreciation and thanks for what she has done for us in our senior year.

Individually, we dispose of our possessions as follows:

I, Audrey Yearout, will my ability to stay out of trouble to Anne Catron.

I, Sally Mabe, will my loud ways and the ability to be a flirt to Peggy Lawson.

I, LaVerne Sayers, will my ability to sell ice cream, and not put on extra pounds to Margaret Ann Armentrout.

I, Jean Manley, will my history book to anyone who is fool enough to want it.

I, Marjerie Ogle, will my ability to write poetry to Alma Humphrey.

I, Juanita Harrell, will my sincere ways to Darlene Kincer.

I, Bessie Lee Mabe, will my small waist-line to Shirley Shomaker.

I, Sylvia Simpkins, will my ability to play basketball to Barbara Christian.

I, Madaline Ogle, will my figure which attracts members of the opposite sex to Betty Manuel.

I, June Mabe, will my ability to make A's to Benny Frazier.

I, Lavonne Jackson, will my brown eyes and my charming walk to Earline Ratcliffe.

I, Gertrude Jackson, will my tiny feet to Frances Mabe.

I, Mary Agnes Quesenberry, will my ability to take it easy to Rachel Collins.

I, Bill Pope, will all my women swooners to Clyde Watson.

I, Billy Adams, will my ability to control my temper at all times and places to Johnny Jackson.

I, Roncie Morrison, will my slim-trim physique to Larry Warden.

We do hereby appoint as the executor of our last will and testament, Mr. James O. Morehead.

In witness thereof, we the senior class of nineteen hundred and forty nine this the third day of June, one thousand nine hundred and forty nine do set our hand and seal.

CLASS PROPHECY

On the night of our graduation the class of '49 agreed that after a decade we would meet at Virginia Beach for a swimming party and later in the evening gather around a camp fire to relate the events that had taken place during the time we had been apart. The swimming party was a great success as all our former classmates were present. But best of all was the campfire at which we gathered around to tell all the happenings of the past decade. These are some of the events related to us by our friends:

We find that Lavonne Jackson is a popular hostess with the American Air Line Association. Although she has been quite successful as a hostess she has informed us that she will give up her career to join her husband who is a great ball player in New York. Sally Mabe, who won the title as the number one ice skater is now living in Canada. Her husband was an ice skater, and they made quite a team. This marriage lasted only four months. She says her next marriage will be her last, but who knows since he is one of New York's play boys? Mary Quesenberry is now a great Metropolitan Opera singer. She is noted for her sweet voice and daring red hair. Mary now resides at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York. She will soon be married to her orchestra director. Jean Manley announces that she is happily married to a well known mortician and is living in Indiana, where she is employed with Milestone Gravers, the Friendly Undertaker. Sylvia Simpkins, after receiving her degree from Madison College, Harrisonburg, Virginia, is now teaching the fourth grade in a very large elementary school. She is soon to break her promise to us of becoming an old maid, but what else could we have expected? June Mabe says that she received her degree from King's College and completed her one year of training in Richmond. She is now a missionary in Mexico and is planning to be married to a great doctor with whom she is now working. Marjorie Ogle has been in Reno, where she obtained her fifth divorce. She plans to be married to the famous movie actor, Vincent Vanderbuilt, and reside in Beverly Hills. Juanita Harrell is now the famous secretary for the President of the University of Southern California. She has been shopping for her trousseau in Del Rio. LaVerne Sayers announces that she has now completed her fourth book, "And Eyes to See" and traveled in Europe where she met and married the American millionaire, Ronald Millan. Beattie Lee Mabe, who is now a great artist in Minneapolis, Minnesota, is working on her great masterpiece, "The Portrait of Siv". She has been happily married now for a period of five years and is very proud of the fact that her husband is permitting her to continue her painting. We find Madeline Ogle was married soon after we graduated. She and her husband have been on a cruise around the world, where they stopped off in Honolulu for a short stay. When they returned they made their home at Palm Beach, Florida. Bill Pope completed his law study at Yale. He is residing in Chicago, and he is working on one of the world's most interesting cases. Bill is expected to become one of the most outstanding lawyers. Roncie Morrison is now a great movie producer. He has just finished the movie, "Violent Lover", starring Audrey Yearout as leading lady. Miss Yearout has signed a five year contract with one of Hollywood's leading producers. Billy Adams now owns several automobile shops in Detroit. His business is rapidly growing, and it is thought that in another year or so he will be among the top in the automobile industry. Gertrude Jackson, who was married to John Jackson, has completed her study at Radford College and is one of Virginia's finest elementary teachers. She and her husband have a little brick home off the Atlantic Coast.
